[illegible]rch Through Files Reveals Many U.S. Towns' Names From Asia

By HOWARD F. SANDY

[illegible] if asked the population of Tokyo [illegible] of 11,000,000." One might with equal [illegible] by saying "0." The reason, of course, [illegible] more than one Tokyo and the smallest [illegible] of only 8 people.

"Tokio", Ill.

[illegible] W[illegible] County, Illinois, south east of Chicago [illegible] my wife, daughters and I made [illegible] I learned the story from its resident [illegible] before the year 1900 a Japanese w[illegible] farming hamlet and when it w[illegible] a post office there, it became nece[illegible] place a name. The Japanese [illegible] American neighbors, [illegible] was named "Tokio." The hamlet [illegible] population over the years as farmers have moved into nearby towns, and the post office no longer exists.

Many Villages

There are many villages in the United States named after Japanese cities. One of my favorites is Tokio, Arkansas. It is between Nashville and Murfreesboro on the border between Hempstead and Pikes counties. A short distance to the east of it is the only diamond mine in the United States. When last I was there, it was possible to obtain permission to hunt diamonds by paying the attendant a small sum. I think only 50 cents for a day. The diamond mine was discovered a long time ago when someone walking along a path in the forest picked up a pretty stone, and on showing it to a jeweler found that he had a valuable diamond. Some of the largest diamonds discovered near "Tokio" are on display at the State Capitol in Little Rock. The population of Tokio, Arkansas is 80. It is an old town and has borne its name almost as long as has the capital city of Japan.

North Dakota

A larger Tokio is in North Dakota in Benson County in the Fort Totten Indian Reservation, between the towns of Warwick and St. Michael. It has a population of 100. Since American Indians are in some degree descended from Japanese who over the ages were shipwrecked on North American shores, it is likely that some of the inhabitants of "Tokio," North Dakota are [illegible] blood as are those in the Japa[illegible] [illegible] post office.

Japanese [illegible] Wild West [illegible] There is Tokio, Texas, in Terry County. It is in the western part of the [illegible] New Mexico boundary and [illegible]

M.J.C.C.A. "OUTLOOK"

Former Editor Surveys Progress

By ELMER OIKE
Former Editor, M.J. C.C.A. "Outlook"

WINNIPEG.—The MJCCA publication, "The Outlook", is in [illegible] year of keeping the Japanese-Canadian community in Manitoba informed about activities, news and on occasion, offering comments on the passing scene. As one of its earlier Editors, it seems impossible that a couple of decades have already passed since the first issue went out, but as I take pen in hand and ponder in retrospect, I can see that it is not impossible. We are seeing a new generation stepping into the community and taking over what we thought only we manage, and doing a commendable job; we have seen advances in scientific, medical, and other technologies that we did not dream possible twenty years ago. Human organ transplants; men on the moon; supersonic jets; electronic computers; I guess I can't argue that it's been 20 years.

"The Outlook" was actually preceded a few years by the Newsletter issued by the first Japanese-Canadian organization in Manitoba called the Manisei Club, so the history of a Japanese-Canadian publication in Manitoba extends beyond 20 years. Regardless of the name by which it was called, its main objective was and still remains the same; to offers news of interest and concern to the community and to assist the JCCA in maintaining a healthy and progressive organization to look after the interests of the Japanese-Canadian community and its contributions to the Canadian way of all Canadians regardless of their backgrounds.

In the early years, the JCCA and "The Outlook" were mainly concerned with the battle of establishing our rights as native-born Canadians, by endeavouring to unite the Japanese-Canadian community into a cohesive unit and speaking as one voice. People like Harry Hirayama, Harold Hirose, Bill Sasaki, Margaret Inouye, [illegible] Hikida, and others will remember those days vividly — working on the property losses, claims, removal of restrictions, the franchise and the founding of the National JCCA, which held its first organizing convention in Winnipeg. It would be remiss of me at this point not to mention those friends outside of our community whose assistance and advice were invaluable [illegible] success. These people were honoured at our 25th Anniversary Banquet [illegible] 1967, but friends such as Thelma S[illegible], [illegible] the Provincial Treasurer, Saul Cherniack [illegible] tireless workers on our behalf. I salute [illegible] who have since passed on, but [illegible] Those include Messrs. Tom Mitani, Jack [illegible] T. Miyake.

[illegible] restrictions imposed on us and the [illegible] ourselves in a strange community [illegible] and we had our moments. Th[illegible] that old cliche, "Wasn't that [illegible] learned something from those [illegible] is injustice not only when we are [illegible] the stick, but also when others are [illegible] we have re-balanced [illegible]

[illegible] else. In the twenty years [illegible] the social fabric of the Japanese-Canadian [illegible] all kinds of reasons and excuses [illegible] that we were discriminated against [illegible] was that we established [illegible] discriminated against the whites [illegible] that some of us have over-compensated for the [illegible] that the quickest and surest way [illegible] forget that we are of Japanese [illegible] subscribe to this theory.

[illegible] heirs to as rich a heritage as [illegible] think it would be a tragedy and a great [illegible] be able to contribute at least a part [illegible] cultural mosaic of Canada. The majority [illegible] the JCCA and such media as "The Out[illegible]" [illegible] to do this. Unfortunately, the [illegible] generation [illegible] as close as we to "Things Japanese" [illegible] forces from without, from [illegible] in which the live, seem to be [illegible] however, having reached [illegible]

Sen. Fulbright Sees No Reason In Greater Japanese Military Role

WASHINGTON — Senator William Fulbright said recently that he saw no reason why Japan should take a greater military role in the Pacific.

"They went through the process once with a very unhappy ending," Mr. Fulbright told newsmen when he emerged from a luncheon at the capital with Prime Minister Sato.

The chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said: "Japan has shown what a trend to progress a nation can make if relieved of the burden of weapons.

"They demonstrated that for even the most obtuse, see... If Japan goes down this road (to militarism) it will go broke like [illegible] I realize the country can't do [illegible] unilaterally. I [illegible] Japan has benefitted from [illegible] I have no illusions [illegible]"

But Japan's experience of [illegible] heavy arms costs demonstrates the importance of the strategic arms limitation talks that have just begun in Helsinki, he added.

House of Reps. Rejects Bill to Delay Reversion

WASHINGTON. — The House of Representatives rejected an amendment offered to the foreign aid bill calling on President Nixon to consult "appropriate committees" in both Houses of Congress before agreeing to return Okinawa to Japan.

The amendment, offered by Rep. Samuel S. Stratton, (D. — N.Y.) was voted down 21-51 by the 435 member House after less than two minutes of deliberation.

The amendment also would have recommended that an agreement be obtained from Japan to boost its defense contribution as well as increase economic aid to Southeast Asia to offset whatever reduction [illegible] these fields with the return [illegible] Okinawa to Japan.

Expo Bike Trip Dream To Be Realized Next Yr.

By EDNA HORSTEAD

VANCOUVER.—One day last summer, when Miss Jutta Fadum, 4413 Commercial Drive, heard about a group from Montreal banding themselves together to do a bicycle tour of Japan, she said she would like to be counted in their number. Via the press, Jutta followed their tour across Canada, until they reached the shores of Vancouver. Once the troupe reached Vancouver, Jutta wasted no time in contacting them. She acquainted herself and her desires to the girls and assisted them in finding lodgings during their Vancouver stopover. Shortly after Christmas, Jutta will join the 85 girl bicyclers as B.C.'s Representative and head for Japan and Expo 70. Jutta is walking around on cloud nine because one of her lifelong dreams is about to be realized, that of visiting Japan. She has heard so much about this mysterious country of the Orient from her employer, Dr. Harold Saita, that she wants to see it for herself. She has already engaged her relief worker to [illegible] in her absence from the office and now is anxiously awaiting the time of departure. To you Jutta we wish a Bon Voyage, and a wish that we will be remembered during your holiday.

Inamoto Stars As Yamadas Swamp Urabe-Dufferin Wins

By GEORGE SHIMONO

TORONTO — Last Sunday afternoon might easily have been called Roger Inamoto day in the CHL. The high-flying centre for Yamada Sundos scored six goals and assisted on another to lead his team to a 10-1 win over previously unbeaten Urabe Insurance.

Actually the score did not represent the true picture of the game since Urabe were in contention even into the 3rd period, trailing only by a 4-3 score. It was only in the last 10 minutes of the contest that Yamada took command and pulled away from the opposition. It was at the point that the line of Inamoto, Dave Okamura and Roy Umeno went to work and showed the Urabe defence what the game was all about with their persistent forechecking, amazingly accurate passing and deadly shooting. Inamoto scored four times in this span, Umeno scored once and assisted on two others while Okamura assisted on three of Roger's tallies.

What made the game an especially good one to watch was the team effort displayed by the Yamada crew, three and sometimes four players were involved in the play which led up to the goals.

Buddy Madokoro, Al Shishido, Yatty Tanaka rounded out the scoring for the Yamada squad, while ever-dangerous George Nishikawa with 2 goals and defenceman Ted Hayashi with a single, replied for Urabe Insurance.

Despite their Sunday showing, Urabe still are a definite power in the league, especially if they are able to solve their goaltending problems.

Yamada's Andy Knox played an outstanding game in goal, robbing sure goals off Rick Mori, Chuck Saito, and George Nishikawa in the first two periods to keep his team in the game until Inamoto and Co. could catch fire in the last period.

The addition of Yoshi Hanafusa gave Yamadas the extra depth on the blueline which they lacked earlier. He was acquired along with winger Wayne Kimura from Dufferin Cleaners in a mid-week deal which gave Dufferin their long sought after prize; defenceman Daley Baba.

Dufferin — 4 versus Japan — 2:

In the second game, Dufferin Cleaners continued their upward trend by decisioning Japan Camera 4-2 in a closely matched contest.

The Cameramen jumped into an early lead on an unassisted goal by Glen Katsuyama. Dufferin tied it up before the end of the first period on a goal by Ken Davie from Benny Murata and Daley Baba.

Newcomer Don Kimura scored early in the second period to give Dufferin the lead for the first time. The lead was shortlived however, as a defensive lapse Dufferin enabled Japan's George Shimono to even the score once again. Assists went to Ron Kitamura and Bob Masukawa. Dufferin roared right back with Ken Davie scoring his second goal on a pass from Rick Matsumoto to give Dufferin a 3-2 edge.

The score remained the same well into the third period with Japan Camera still very much in the hunt. However, Dave McCabe came through to cinch the game for Dufferin. It was at this point that Japan's goalkeeper Richard Matsumoto (filling in for the injured Danny Yamasaki) must have wondered who his opposition were. The last goal plus an earlier Dufferin marker were deflected accidentally into the net by his own teammates.

Dufferin goalie Mac Nakamura was probably the outstanding player in the game. He came up with several tremendous stops right through the course of the game. He was especially effective at making saves with his catching glove-hand. Wingers Ron Kitamura and Jim Abe, with their sound positional play were the most effective players for Japan Camera.

剣の詩々 [illegible]

剣禅は一如である。と言いはじめたようである。沢庵はのちに柳生宗矩のために剣と禅によって説いた「不動智神妙録」をあらわし、宗矩に贈った。が、剣の一介の兵法者である武蔵とは接触はない。交渉をもたなかった。

剣、禅は、禅入すればと [illegible] 剣術は買い戻しかのは、武道ではない。武蔵と同時代にもつとも著名だった禅僧は沢庵であろう。沢庵は京の大徳寺の住職をうけ、のち江戸の東海寺から大いに尊崇されたが、武蔵のうち [illegible] から禅庵に [illegible] したのは柳生但馬守宗矩であった。柳生宗矩は大名であり、剣術家でもあり、禅にいずれ禅と剣とをとらえあったであろう。この問題を通して沢庵は剣 [illegible]

武蔵が、剣と禅のつながりについて強烈な関心をもつたのは、はじめて江戸にくだってからであろう。江戸では柳生宗矩の新剛が多い。当然、柳生宗のりにおける禅のことを聞く機会も多く、その新剛は、禅的体質の武蔵によって聞きのがせぬものであったに相違ない。

その関心を蔵しつつ、武蔵は京にやってきている。京では、空という。空の境地の初歩は我執を去ることであり、兵法にあっては勝とうと思う我執をすてねばならない。ついで我執をおこす我を捨てねばならない。さらに我を捨てようと思う我を捨て、さらには仏法によって捨てようとするその仏法をすて、すべてを捨てきつて否定の底に陥落したときにはじめて真実の世界がひらけるというものであり、それだけにこの道は容易なものではなく、古来、高名の僧のうち何人の者がこの境地に至れたか、きわめてわずかであったにちがいない。

バザーの免税額増す

十二月一日より五千ドルまで

オ州税務大臣ジョン・ホワイト氏は今週、州議會でバザー及びラメージ・セールス・タキス免除額を増やしたと發表した。今まで課税對象となっていた賣上高五百ドルのを十二月一日より五千ドルに引上げることになった。

同大臣によると州内の慈善團體のかかる催事は年々増大し、賣上げもふえてきているので、五百ドル賣上げ見込みにセールス・タキスを課すという法規は時代おくれとなり、五千ドル以上の賣上げは樂々と實現しているので、五千ドルまでの賣上げに對するセールス・タキスは免除するというわけである。したがって五千ドルを少し位上回る賣上げ見込みのバザーやラメージ・セールスの成績は當局に申告する必要はないという。

核持込み断わる

佐藤首相が記者會見で語る

【東京時事】十六日帰国した佐藤首相は首相官邸で記者会見し、次のように語った。

(一)沖縄には本土の取り決め條項が變更なしに適用されるのだから"本土並み"ははっきりしており、本土に核はないのだからこれで疑いをさしはさむ余地はない。

(一)有事核持ち込みは断わる。はっきりしている。

(一)われわれは朝鮮の事態に最大の関心を持つ。緊張が起れば憲法の許す限度内のことをするのは当然である。

(一)たとえベトナム戦争がかつても沖縄は七二年中には返る。ピー五二の問題はその時考え、相談する。ピー五二撤去の方針はつかく。

(一)日中関係がいままでのまま続いていいものではない。緊張緩和の方向はないかと努力した。中共にも考えてもらいたい。

(一)核防條約についての方針は變わらぬ。米側からどうしたらいいという話はなかった。

(一)日本が米国の軍事的かた代わりをすることはない。経済協力のみである。

ベンソン藏相の失言

「週三十弗で食えるさ」

【オタワ】エドガー・ベンソン蔵相が先週末トロント市のラジオ放送局での対談で「自分としても週三十ドルあればなんとかして食っていけると思う」と語ったことが、同蔵相を苦笑いさせる結果を生んでいる。

ベンソン蔵相がオタワ議会に姿を現わすや、新民主党のスタンレー・ノールス議員から「蔵相は週三十ドルで生活できると公言したのだから、年給三万五千ドルを取り上げ、彼に週給三十ドルを与えるべきだ」との發言を行い、與野党から爆笑が起った。

ノールス議員は 蔵相がこの日から六ケ月間、週三十ドルで食っていけるかどうかの結果を議会に報告することを要求するとの動議を出したが、贊成不十分で却下された。

ベンソン蔵相は例の如くパイプをふかしながら記者団に「私のラジオ対談の一片を取りあげられての攻撃は不當だ」と弁解しており「何も三十ドルで生活している人がある、といったのではない。どこかにそれだけで生活している人もあろう、といったまでだ」とつけ加えた。

前大臣が警告

【エドモントン】ピアソン首相時代の蔵相だったワルター・ゴードン氏(経済学者)は今週當地で、カナダはますます米国の影響下におかれて衛星国化し、米国の外交及び国防政策に左右されるにいたっていると語った。

ゴードン氏は「カナダがやっと英国のキズナから解放されたと思うと、こんどは米国の網に引っかかって身動きもできない有様だ」といっており、オタワ政府が強力な独自政策を推進してその立場を守ることがのこされた途であろうとしている。

スカルノ氏守るため デビさん離婚を要求

【東京】インドネシア前大統領スカルノ氏の日本女性の妻デビさんは、彼女が目下執筆予定の原稿で現大統領スハルト氏を非難するにさいして夫君が引責を受けないようにするため離婚を申し出ている。

デビさんの弁護士中井弘彌氏は今週、ラトナ・サリ・デビさんの書く文中には、スカルノ前大統領と彼女が六千五百万ドル以上を斂取したとする風説を否定し、スハルト大統領を批判するものだと説明しており、スハルト大統領とその現政府の腐敗内部をかくそうとするために二人に罪を着せようとするものだ、といっている。

デビさんはスカルノ氏が一九六〇年に訪日中、東京のナイト・クラブのホステスをしていた時知りあってから結婚したもので、彼女はスカルノ氏を今なお愛していると語っている。

HEIKE GANI

Near the [illegible] straits of Shimonoseki [illegible] the shore called Dan-no-Ura, one of the fiercest sea battles of ancient times took place. There in the year 1185, the Minamoto (Genji) clan led by their young general Yoshitsune completely crushed the powerful Taira (Heike) family. Then the [illegible] air filled with [illegible] arrows with the splintering of wooden hulls, and the clash of steel on steel. Waves [illegible] over men and ships, staining crimson with the blood of [illegible]. Virtually all of the [illegible] perished, including the child-emperor Antoku-Tenno, and [illegible] afterwards Dan-no-Ura was haunted by the ghosts of the Taira warriors. These [illegible] appear at night as pale [illegible] flickering above the [illegible], and strong invisible arms dragged many a poor sailor to his death beneath the waves.

Not long after the battle, [illegible] crabs of a type never before seen appeared along those [illegible]. A hideous face, formed by the intricate convolutions of the shell, could be seen on the back of each crab a face exactly like that of a Japanese warrior in full armour, his features contorted into a mask of awesome fierceness! These terrifying crustaceans were called Heike-gani (Crabs of the Heike), for it was believed that they were indeed the ghosts of the Taira warriors who died in that tragic defeat.

Impossible? Perhaps not! The Heike-gani are still found along that coast in great numbers. It is well known that crabs are scavengers, and delight in feasting upon dead flesh of any sort. It is equally obvious that the crabs were not created overnight; that they must have existed long before the battle, but probably not in the area of Dan-no-Ura. There is really very little mystery involved. The corpses of thousands of warriors were dragged to the sea bottom by their heavy armour, there to decompose with the passage of time. The crabs, lured from distant waters by the scent of rotting flesh, must have arrived in vast numbers to take advantage of this macabre feast. Once there, they found enough food to last for months, and stayed on to propagate further generations of crabs. For nearly eight centuries their progeny have remained. And who indeed can deny that they are truly the men of the Taira clan, for does not even now, some small part of the grisly nourishment taken by their ancient kindred survive in these modern Heike-gani?

What Nature — Man?

A Time To Stop And Think

By A. H. HOTTA

Since the time when we were kids we've all had ingrained in us [illegible] through the media what a wonderful country of wealth and opportunity was the United States. Speaking as Canadians, our heroes, [illegible] had to take second place to the more prevalent [illegible] all-conquering American heroes. If we did exist in the States [illegible] was often [illegible] disguised envy over the fact the American had a stronger [illegible]. Of course, as Asian Canadians, we [illegible] that our cultural heroes have generally all been white. The [illegible] consequence, [illegible] to accommodate.

But we have been [illegible] that America is the land of the free, home of the brave, a place where, ideal, all men should be created equal. [illegible] the ideal was there. In other words, even as [illegible] Canadians, we actively believed in the "American Dream."

But with the [illegible] of the domestic troubles of the U.S. (racism, explosions) the seeds of doubt were sown. Now comes the revelation of the alleged "Pinky Ville" massacres in Viet Nam and suspected others. This is truly enough to disillusion the [illegible] optimistic and shock even the most cynical.

Should we stand in condemnation of the U.S.? It it indeed, the "sick society?" This would not be the first time such a thing ever happened nor are any peoples' hands clean in this regard. But we must look to our own times. It's happening now.

What makes it so disappointing is that it happened to a country: born in a revolution and espousing for itself the ideals of democracy and the dignity and equality of man — a very depressing spectacle.

As a commentary on human nature — man has always had the ruthlessness and greed to destroy himself and others. Now he has the technological capability. It is a most ominous time.

come to realize that we indeed have a rich contribution to make from our heritage and are actively participating in our various Japanese Canadian organizations. They are to be encouraged and supported all the way, as they are the only ones to be able to interpret Japan and its historical culture to the enrichment of Canada in the future.

As two of the means by which this can be done, the JCYA and "The Outlook" are serving a useful purpose and through the support of you and me, may they look forward to another 20 years of continued success.

has a population of 25. The area is sparsely populated — typical of the [illegible] locale in which Wild West movies are made. It has a post office.

There was formerly a Tokio in Ohio, too. It had a post office in 1937, but has none now, and has been renamed Jonestown. Whether it was renamed because of anti-Japanese feelings during World War II, or was absorbed into Jonestown, I don't know. Americans very rarely change place names because of war time animosities.

Tokyo Not Only One

Tokyo is not the only Japanese city to have namesakes in the United States. There is an Osaka in Wise County, Virginia. It has a population of 100 and is located in the heart of the Cumberland mountains in the western part of Virginia, near the Kentucky border. Inhabitants of Osaka, Japan would probably like to visit the community in Virginia, for the latter has no smog, is in a forest wilderness and is surround by lovely mountains, some of which rise over 4,000 feet above sea level.

Shimoda was, in the 1850's, well known in the United States well known in the United States for it was visited by Commodore Perry and his squadron and was one of the first two ports to be open to American ships. A community in Pendleton County, West Virginia was named after the Japanese port. The spelling was "Simoda" just as was the spelling of the Izu city until recently. Simoda, West Virginia had a post office as late as 1937, but does not now.

Japan in N.C.

Although "Japan" in the minds of most people is the name of a great nation, for many years in Graham County, North Carolina, "Japan" was the name of a community and post office. Graham is one of the most beautiful counties in the United States; being in the heart of the Great Smoky Mountains. Close to "Japan." North Carolina, is a Cherokee Indian Reservation, so here, as in North Dakota, cousins of the Japanese race may be found. The post office is no longer in existence. There was at one time a post office in Seattle called "Nippon." But it, like "Japan." North Carolina, no longer operates.

Some Oriental place names are widely used but do not appear [illegible]. The center of the Japanese community in Los Angeles, "Little Tokyo," was one of this type.

Other Oriental Nations

Besides Japan place names, there are also names from other Oriental nations. There are, for example, Shanghais in Virginia and in West Virginia, and Pekins in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky. Pekin, Illinois is an important city. There is also an Illinois village called Woosung. There are Chinas in Maine, Texas and South San Francisco. There is a place called "Chinese Camp" in California. There are Manilas in Alabama, Arkansas and South Dakota.

Doubtless because the Cantonese were adventurous and willing to emigrate, there are many Cantons in the U.S. There is also a Canton Point in Maine.

The freedom with which Americans have chosen Oriental place names is unique among Western nations. It demonstrates lack of racial prejudice in an unmistakable way.

Sister Cities

Many Japanese cities now have "sister" cities in the United States. New York, for example, is Tokyo's sister city. I recommend that the Tokyo, Osaka and Shimoda city governments get in touch with the inhabitants of the tiny American communities that bear their names and in some way commemorate the relationship. If New York and Tokyo are "sister" cities, it might be appropriate to call Tokyo, Japan "great grandfather" and each of the Tokios in the U.S. "great granddaughters."

Other nations, far older than the United States, also adopt foreign names from time to time. Since in old countries, villages, towns and cities already have names, however, it is necessary to find other location for foreign names. In Paris, for example, many important boulevards have been named for foreigners, including American presidents.

Not far from where I live in Tokyo is a bridge called "Ameri-ka Bashi." Near my office [illegible] road which the residents have just named "Apollo Dori" after the American astronauts who [illegible] Apollo 11 first reached the moon.

I think it is a good idea to adopt foreign names whether for villages, or bridges, or boulevards. It helps a little to make more international minded and it also enable us to [illegible] friendly feelings.
